

IMS Training

New! Business English for Professionals

- Introduction to Business English for professionals
- Effective communication in meetings
- Recruitment interviewing
- Relations building and networking
- Correspondence in corporate English: professional report and email writing
- Marketing principles
- International Negotiation skills: Clients or suppliers.
- Contract understanding and writing.
- Business speaking in front of international audience
- Presentation skills

Goals of the training: Comfortably hold discussions in English write an email, a report and exchange with international clients or suppliers.

Your managerial team's objectives:

- Confidently hold discussions in English
- Recycle relevant vocabulary while developing learning strategies
- Write emails, reports, summaries, contracts
- Improve communication skills
- Socializing
- Telephoning
- Presenting information
- Participating in meetings
- Handling senior discussions
- Providing solutions

Target audience: Intermediate levels professionals, managers and

For more information contact us:contact@ims-research.com